

TRANSNATIONAL APPROACHES TO NATIONALISM

SCOPES Project Concluding International Conference,
Sofia, October 24-25, 2008

Programme

Friday, October 24, CAS

10.00-10.10	Introduction by Diana Mishkova
10.10-10.50	Roumen Daskalov, Balkan Histories: Shared, Connected, Entangled
10.50-11.20	Coffee break
11.20-12.00	Thomas Metzger, Structures and Characteristics of Swiss Fascism: The „Fronten” 1933-1939/45
12.00-12.40	Octavian Silvestru, Anti-Semitism and Nationalism in 1870s Romania. The Case of Mihai Eminescu
12.40-14.30	Lunch break
14.30-15.10	Nadine Ritzer, War in the Service of Nation- and State-Building? An Analysis of a Romanian Textbook
15.10-15.50	Tchavdar Marinov, “Farewell Tito, Hello Europe”: The Macedonian Anticommunist Revisionism in a Transnational Context
15.50-16.20	Coffee break
16.20-17.00	David Matsaberidze, The Soviet Ethnic Policy: Building Transnational Identity Homo Sovieticus vs. Strengthening Local Ethnic Identities (The Case of Caucasus)
17.00-18.00	General discussion on the papers

Saturday, October 25, CAS

- 10.00-11.30 Meeting (Urs Altermatt, Diana Mishkova, Franziska Metzger, Tchavdar Marinov) about the continuation of the SCOPES project
- 11.30-11.50 Introduction by Urs Altermatt
- 11.50-12.30 Franziska Metzger, A Transnational Perspective on Religion, Moral and the Nation – Great Britain, the Netherlands, and Switzerland in the 19th and 20th Centuries
- 12.30-14.30 Lunch break
- 14.30-15.10 David Luginbühl, “May the European Crisis be far Away...” Swiss Catholic-Conservatives and their Perceptions of Europe 1848-1889
- 15.10-15.50 Catherine Bosshart, Gender and Citizenship
- 15.50-16.20 Coffee break
- 16.20-17.00 Diana Mishkova, Legacies of Transnationalism: a Regionalist Perspective
- 17.00-18.00 General discussion on the papers